

MVOC Valentine Hunt 2014
 February 8, 2014
 Possum Creek Metro Park
 Meet Director: Tom Svobodny

There were 47 starts and 55 total competitors at this years Valentine Hunt. The lower than usual turn-out was probably due to the low temperatures. Temperatures started out around 10F and rose to about 20F by the end. There was sunshine which helped to warm up those out in the open areas. There was about 10in of packed snow on the ground with a 2in crust on top. The best running was in the open prairies where the wind had blown down the vegetation and blown away much of the snow. The ground was frozen solid. Unfortunately, Possum Creek was not frozen over.

The competition on the purple course saw a repeat of last year with Ben Hart and Rob Minto going 1-2. In other action, Aidan Minto smoked the orange course, finishing in under an hour. Jaime Reeder, Nathan Bantz, Sharon Bond, and Sophie Raterman also finished in less than an hour.

I would like to thank Matt Bond and Mike Minium for help with set-up and registration and thank Joe Raterman and Ben Bond for tending to the fire.
